Vehicle Description

Supplied new on 21st February 1995 by Lamborghini GB / AFN Reading.

My own car for 17 years.

Finished in the Factory special order Daytona Black, Black Alcantara with Red Piping.

The SE30 is a limited edition model of the Diablo, to commemorate the 30th Anniversary of Lamborghini.

Limited to 150 cars worldwide this is one of only 12 right hand drive examples

As part of the upgrades over the mass produced Diablos. The engine received upgrades, including a tuned fuel system, free-flowing exhaust, and magnesium intake manifolds, increasing power to 530hp. The interior was trimmed with Carbon Fibre door panels, centre console and the windows were replaced with plexiglass quarter winders.

Zero miles since a full body restoration by a Diablo expert and overseen by the old staff from the factory.

As clean underneath as it is on top.

Featured in many magazines and in the opening scene of Jamiroquais video 'Alright'

This is a very special car, great value compared to the Ferrari F50 of a similar era and half as many produced.

This is one for the serious and knowledgeable collector.
